Before permitting the British Queen and her Wall Street entourage to take control over your President and the U.S. economy, too, you should realize that habitual thieves are not motivated by either the intent or ability to actually earn wealth. Why dirty your hands with actually producing wealth, for as long as you could steal it, instead?

The fact is: there is not a single person in or around the White House today, who has either the slightest ability, or knowledge of how actual wealth is produced. Take the case of the former U.S. automobile industry. The industry has been dying, on the road to dead since decisions made by the U.S. Congress in February 2006. It is now emitting its death-rattle, at the same time that the people of the United States are about to be looted lavishly under direction from the administration of a President Barack Obama, who knows nothing about a real economy, and, on his performance to date, could care less.

The truth about successful economies, which the White House today has no presently manifest desire to hear, is that the growth, even the mere maintenance of actual economic wealth, as measured per capita and per square kilometer of territory, requires a secular trend of increase in the physical productivity as measured per capita and per square kilometer of the total net physical output of an increased margin of physical, not monetary, wealth.

That is why the present administration and the admirers of its current policies are so stupid when it comes to matters related to the defense of the economic future of the existence of this nation.

If you wish to know why the current economic policies of the Obama administration are so viciously stupid in their effects, it is the virtually satanic quality of ignorance of economics by the President and its currently leading economic advisors. The proof of that stupidity is to be found in Adam Smith's famous 1759 Theory of Moral Sentiments, the same, morally criminal stupidity of the President's current set of viciously immoral, so-called "Behaviorist" advisors, such as Larry Summers, Peter Orszag, Rahm Emanuel, and the rest.

What Adam Smith wrote is summed up in a single sentence from that writing by Adam Smith:

"... Hunger, thirst, the passion which unites the two sexes, the love of pleasure, and the dread of pain, prompt us to apply these means for their own sakes, and without any consideration of their tendency to those beneficent ends which the great Director of nature intended to produce by them."

Thus, explicitly contrary to all science or other sane behavior, Smith and his followers forbid both citizens and their governments to apply any physical-economic measure of performance to judging whether the current policies of government are actually productive, useful, or even sane. So, President Obama has adopted the same policy, dated by Dictator Adolf Hitler to September 1, 1939, which was the proclaimed law under which all the most infamous atrocities of the Hitler regime were perpetrated for as long as Hitler lived. The Obama administration's crafting of its own current healthcare and related policies, is a carbon copy of that act of law which was the great crime against all humanity by the Adolf Hitler dictatorship.

That is not a coincidence. It was the same British empire which had initially installed the Hitler dictatorship, with backing from such Wall Street figures as the grandfather, Prescott Bush, of former U.S. President George W. Bush, Jr., which had forced the Hitler regime down the throat of post-Versailles Germany. It is the policies to this effect installed under President George W. Bush, Jr., which have been the platform from which the Hitler-echoing social-economic policies of the current Obama administration have been launched under the direction of the current British monarchy.

It is not a mere coincidence that the intentional design for genocide against populous categories of the U.S. population is presently threatened, with Hitler-like consequences, such as those unleashed by the Hitler law of Sept. 1, 1939, against enormous portions of the targeted categories of the U.S. population. It was the current husband, Prince Philip, of the Queen of England, who has expressed a desire, on behalf of his World Wildlife Fund, for unleashing diseases upon the world which would vastly reduce the world population with a form of genocide which is an effective copy of Adolf Hitler's practice. Under what is called the Nuremberg Principle, Prince Philip and his U.S. and other accomplices in such "neo-malthusian" policies, are clearly, implicitly, accountable.

To accomplish those ends of “population reduction” of certain categories of our own, or other nations’ populations, is implicitly the most hideous crime for which any incumbent government might be brought to trial by relevant institutions assembled for that mission.

At this moment, the President and a selected cabal of his associates are conducting a series of meetings with such as select members of the U.S. Congress, in the attempt to ram such Hitler-like policies through as U.S. Federal statutes, before the generality of the population could be alerted to the intentional crimes against humanity being presently promoted from relevant circles inside the Obama administration.

Stop that horror while you can! Do not wait, as the German population did.

It is clear, that without removing the circles within the Obama administration which have launched the effort to write a commitment to genocide within U.S. Federal Law, a global chain-reaction would be unleashed, by the passage of such legislation, which would be the end of civilization for generations yet to come. You, if you are a moral person, have no right not to oppose President Obama’s policies on this account.
